

Dr Simon Marr

Modernisation Fund
Investment Committee alternate Member

This CV is based on information provided to the EIB by the person concerned.

Personal Information:

- Nationality: German

Career:

- Since February 2022
Head of Unit – EU Climate Policy and EU Climate Initiative (EUKI) at Ministry for Economic Affairs and Climate Policy (BMWK), Berlin
- September 2019 until February 2022
Head of Unit – Environment and Economic Affairs, Sustainable Trade and Business Policy in Ministry for Environment
- November 2014 until September 2019
Adviser to German G7 / G20 Sherpa on Climate and Energy Policy at German Federal Chancellery
- September 2009 to November 2014
Desk officer on EU Climate Policy at Ministry for Environment
- September 2005 to September 2009
Seconded National Expert to The European Commission / DG Environment – Unit for Carbon Market Based Instruments

Education:

- 2003 / 2000
Doctor Juris at The Institute for the Law of the Sea, University of Hamburg;
Visiting Scholar, New York University
- 1999 / 1995
German Bar Examen, 1. State Examination in Laws, Berlin
- 1997
Master of Laws (LL.M.) at the University College London

Languages: English, French

Publications:

Simon Marr is the author and co-author of numerous books and articles in the field of climate change and international and European environmental law, including the following:

- Climate and Energy Policy in the EU and Germany at a Crossroads, in Legal Regimes for Environmental Protection, Hans-Joachim Koch, Doris König et al (Brill 2015), pp 49-69;
- Moving Towards Phase III—Key Elements of the Review of the EU Emissions Trading Scheme (with Johannes Enzmann), Journal for European Environmental & Planning Law, 2008, pp 159-181;
- The Precautionary Principle in the Law of the Sea: Modern Decision Making in International Law (Publications on Ocean Development, Brill 2003), pp 268.